ORDER

On October 17, 2019, defendant James Krueger filed a motion to dismiss the claims against him. Since that date, both of plaintiffs' lawyers—Attorneys Stern and Swanigan—have sought the court's permission to withdraw from the case, and have received such permission. Attorney Swanigan's motion to withdraw indicates that plaintiff Kenyanna Allen is aware of the attorneys' withdrawal and that the plaintiffs intend to seek new counsel. ECF # 32 at 5. Seven weeks have elapsed since attorney Swanigan notified plaintiffs of her intent to withdraw from the case, but no response has been filed to defendant Krueger's motion to dismiss.

The plaintiffs are hereby ordered that they must file either an amended complaint or a response to defendant Krueger's motion to dismiss by March 16, 2020. This deadline applies whether or not plaintiffs are able to secure counsel. Failure to file an amended complaint or response by the deadline will result in dismissal of the claims against defendant Krueger.

SO ORDERED.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin this 18th day of February, 2020.
